

CORPORATE HEADQUARTERS

Pro-business, cost-competitive

A skilled and highly educated workforce

Access to Florida's workforce, the third largest in the U.S.

FLORIDA FACTS

5.5% corporate tax rate and zero personal state income tax

Florida has a 5.5% corporate tax rate and zero personal state income tax

22 Fortune 500 companies

Some of the largest businesses have headquarters in Florida today — including 22 Fortune 500 companies

State of Florida Incentives for Businesses

- Capital Investment Tax Credit
- High Impact Performance Incentive
- The Rural Community Development Revolving Loan Fund
- Quick Response Training (QRT)
- Incumbent worker training
- Sales tax exemptions
- Federal incentives - opportunity zone & new market tax credit

Florida's reputation as a business-friendly state that offers an excellent quality of life has led to a boom in new corporate headquarters and satellite offices.

Within Florida, Palm Coast makes a compelling case thanks to its competitive costs and affordable cost of living. Relative to its larger neighbors, Palm Coast-based businesses enjoy easy access to the talent, research opportunities, and business partnerships throughout the greater Northeast Florida region, while preserving the quality of life factors that make our city so desirable.